 |  |  |

I beg your pardon, mama, what did you say? My mind was drifting off on Martinique Bay.

 |  |  |

It's not that I'm not inte-ested, you see, Augusta, Georgia is just no place to be.

 |  |  |

I think Jamaican in the moonlight. Sandy beaches, drinking rum every night.

 |  |  |

We got no money, mama, but we can go. We'll split the difference, go to Coconut Grove.

 |  |  |

Keep on talking, mama, I can hear your voice, it tickles down in-side of my ear.

 |  |  |

I feel a tropical va-cation this year, might be the answer to this hillbilly fear.

p.2. An American Dream

Voila! An A-merican Dream. Well, we can travel, girl, with-out any means.

When it's as easy as closing your eyes, and dream Jamaica is a big neon sign.

Interlude:

Just keep talking, mama, I like that sound. It goes so easy with that rain falling down.

I think a tropical va-cation this year, might be the answer to this hillbilly fear.
