I found her diary under-neath a tree,
Then she, confronted with the writing there,
I found her diary under-neath a tree,

and started reading a-bout me simply pretended not to care
and started reading a-bout me

The words she'd written took me by surprise, I passed it off as just in keeping with The words began to stick, and tears to flow, you'd never read them in her eyes.

her total, disconcerting air her meaning now was clear to see

They said that she had found the love she'd waited for
And, though she tried to hide the love that she de-nied,
The love she'd waited for was someone else, not me

Wouldn't you know it, she wouldn't show it (2nd verse)
Wouldn't you know it, she wouldn't show it (G7, and then go on to #1)
Wouldn't you know it, she wouldn't show it (G7, and then go on to #2) 1.

And, as I go through my life, I will give to her, my wife, all the sweet things I can find (3rd verse)

2.
And, as I go through my life, I will wish for her, his wife, all the sweet things she can find

All the sweet things they can find
