

I FEEL SO SMOOCHIE (BAR)-Phil Moore

4/4 1...2...1234

Intro: |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

I feel so smoochie, when I hold your hand and look in your eyes

I feel so smoochie when I touch your lips and I real-ize

That to hold you near makes rainbows appear, and life is just one long kiss

With the moon shining down, and the stars kinda frown,

And say, golly, just look what we miss

I feel so smoochie, when the night is cool, it's always warm here with you

I feel so smoochie, when a seat for one becomes a love seat for two

Then I'll know my career starts and ends right here, right in your loving arms

Smoochie little girl you,

smoochie old character me

Smoochie little girl you,

smoochie....old.....character me
