Intro: First 2 lines

Mom, I'm coming home, so take my picture off the wall

I'm coming home, I've had e-nough of being a-lone

Dad, I'll see you soon. Don't keep me talking on the phone

You're wasting time, I've gotta move. I'm going home

Since I've been away, it gets harder every day. I really have a lot to learn

She loved me at the start, then she left and broke my heart. To my home I will re-turn

Now, I will come to you, back to the only friends I know

You under-stand, your love is true, I'm coming home
