

I NEVER SEE MAGGIE ALONE^(BAR)-Lynton/Tisley

Maggie Dear just won't go out alone. It seems that she must have a chaper-one.

When we go out, no matter where we're bound, there's always somebody a-round.

She brings her father, her mother, her sister and her brother, oh, I never see Maggie a-lone.

She brings her uncles, her cousins, she's got 'em by the dozens, oh, I never see Maggie a-lone.

And if I phone her, say to her sweet. "Where shall we meet? Sup-posin' that we eat,"

She brings her father, her mother, her sister and her brother, oh, I never See Maggie a-lone.

I bought a roadster, two seated - I even had it heated so that I could see Maggie a-lone.

While we were ridin' and kissin', the engine started missin,' we were a long way from home.

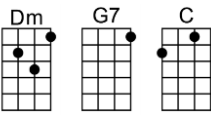

I got right out then, fast as I could; I found what was wrong, for when I raised the hood:

There was her father, her mother, her sister and her brother, oh, I never see Maggie a-lone.

p.2. I Never See Maggie Alone

Interlude:

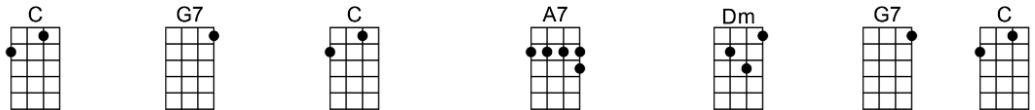

One day she said she was wishin' that I would take her fishin,' I knew I'd see Maggie a-lone!

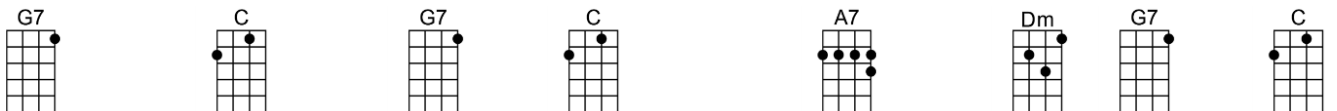

In a can-oe then, we two then went glidin' o'er the water, far from the noise of her home.

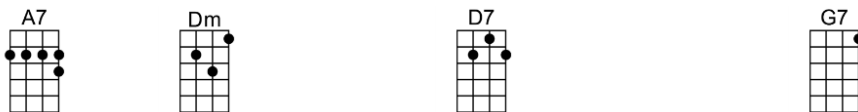

I threw my line in - thought I'd catch a trout, I got a bite, pulled the line right out.

There was her father, her mother, her sister and her brother, oh, I never see Maggie a-lone.

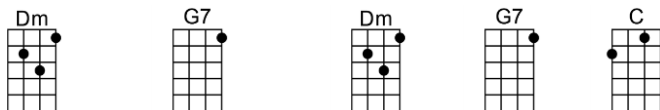

One night while we were out walkin', and she grew tired of talkin', she in-vided me up to her home

I turned the lights down, they were too bright, oh what a night, but when I turned on the light

There was her father, her mother, her sister and her brother, oh, I never see Maggie,

I'd love to see Maggie, oh, I never see Maggie a-lone!
