I WISH I WAS EIGHTEEN AGAIN

3/4 123 12 (without intro) -Sonny Throckmorton

Intro: |  |  |  |  |  |  |

At a bar down in Dallas, an old man chimed in, and they thought he was out of his head

And, all being young men, they just laughed it off, when they heard what this old man said

He said, "I'll never a-gain turn the young ladies' heads, or go running off into the wind

I'm three quarters home, from the start to the end, and I wish I was eighteen a-gain."

Oh, I wish I was eighteen a-gain, and going where I've never been

Now, old folks and old oaks, standing tall, just pre-tend, I wish I was eighteen a-gain

Interlude:

p.2. I Wish I Was Eighteen Again

Time turns the pages, and life goes so fast, the years turn the dark hair all gray

I talk to some young folks, but they don't understand the words this old man's got to say

Oh, I wish I was eighteen a-gain, and going where I've never been

Now, old folks and old oaks, standing tall, just pretend, I wish I was eighteen a-gain

Oh, I wish I was eighteen a-gain.
