

MIDNIGHT SUN - m. Lionel Hampton/Sonny Burke

4/4 1...2...1234

-w. Johnny Mercer

Intro: | | | | | | | | |

Your lips were like a red and ruby chalice, warmer than the summer night
I can't explain the silver rain that found me, or was that a moonlit veil

The clouds were like an alabaster palace, rising to a snowy height
The music of the universe a-round me, or was that a nightin - gale

Each star its own aurora bore-alis, suddenly you held me tight
And then your arms miraculously found me, suddenly the sky turned pale

1.

I could see the midnight sun.

(second verse)

I could see the midnight sun

p.2. Midnight Sun

Was there such a night, it's a thrill I still don't quite be-lieve

But, after you were gone, there was still some stardust on my sleeve

The flame of it may dwindle to an ember, and the stars for-get to shine

And we may see the meadow in De-cember, icy white and crystal - line

But, oh, my darling, always I'll re-mem-ber, when your lips were close to mine

And we saw the midnight sun, and we saw the midnight sun, and we saw the midnight sun
